

Tract Residents Do Battle With Speeders

EXCHANGE TEACHER John Hodgson and his family, wife Elizabeth, son Nicholas and daughter Hermione exchanged assignments for the coming school year with John Hyma of Yorba Linda who teaches at Troy High. The Hodgsons are living in the Hyma home.

English Teachers Swap Countries

By Debbie Conkey and Jim Arkison

When a friend phones the John Hyma residence in Yorba Linda these days and "John" answers they are surprised to hear a greeting in a cultured British accent.

The "John" answering the phone is not Hyma but Hodgson. He is the English teacher from Rawlings School in Leicestershire, England who has exchanged assignments for the 1976-77 school year with Hyma, a Troy High English teacher.

The Hodgson family arrived recently and will live in the Hyma home for the year they are in the area. Here only a few days, the Hodgsons have noted that Yorba Lindans "are very much at ease. They are more relaxed and warmer. I've talked to people in the post office and bank."

In looking for bicycles for the children, Nicholas, 6, and Hermione, 3, John and his wife, Elizabeth, have discovered one of our more recent developments... garage sales.

Hodgson is very excited at being able to see his way of life and his educational system in perspective to the American scene in both respects.

England, he explained, is gradually shifting from the "selective" method of schooling. In that system children, age 11 and up, must take entrance-type exams. The trend now is towards the "comprehensive" U.S. system.

"Everyone is in the same school. There is no prejudice about what someone can do," Hodgson said about our system. But, he added, with equality comes other challenges.

Comprehensive schools are larger and need guidance counselors, something previously unheard of in English Schools. He expects to get a good grasp of the system while teaching English at Troy.

Admittance into the teacher exchange program was a long process the visiting educator revealed. He was interviewed in November, accepted in December and then had to wait until the proper "match" could be made.

When the Hyma-Hodgson pairing was set arrangements had to be made with the Department of State, school districts and in many other areas. Finally, domestic details had to be arranged.

Car insurance and housing were high on the list as the two families will use each others autos and residences for the year. They each continue to receive their own salary but Hodgson also receives an additional grant because of the high cost of living in the United States.

The two families met in Washington, D.C., while enroute to their new assignments. With Hyma is his wife Norma and daughter, Wendy, 15.

New Fire Station To Open Soon

California Division of Forestry fire authorities revealed that the new station at Yorba Linda and Fairmont will be operational this week although they could not tab the exact day because some minor problems still need to be resolved.

Labor Day

To enable staff members to enjoy the Labor Day Holiday, Monday, September 6, the offices of this newspaper will be closed on that day. Consequently, deadlines for copy, photos and advertising have been advanced one day. Normal Friday deadlines will be observed Thursday and Monday deadlines on Friday of this week. Photos will be taken Wednesday and Thursday but not on Friday.

Local Man Slain in Iran

Little is known about Don Gordon Smith, 43, of Yorba Linda, one of three Rockwell International of Anaheim employees slain in Iran by terrorists last week.

According to sketchy information, Smith and his wife, lived in the city only two months prior to leaving for the assignment in Iran a year ago.

Smith and his co-workers, William Cottrell and Robert Krongard, both Californians, were ambushed in their car. They were killed by a barrage of automatic weapons fire. The slaying occurred in a suburb of Tehran.

The trio, according to the U.S. Embassy, were working on a research project their company was doing for the Iranian government.

Reports said that Smith and his companions were being driven to work when their car was forced to stop by another car. The Iranian driver was ordered out and the vehicle was sprayed with gunfire. The assailants were reported to have jumped into another car and driven from the scene.

Smith was said by officials of the Autonetics Group of Rockwell to be logistics manager of the project.

Water Rates to Increase

The Yorba Linda County Water District will increase its rates to both commercial and residential customers beginning today, Sept. 1, general manager Ralph Shook announced. The new rate will first appear on the November 1 water bills, Shook said.

The minimum rates for the first 600 cubic feet of water consumed will not be affected, he added, but for consumption over 600 cubic feet, there will be an increase of 4 cents per 100 cubic feet (750 gallons).

Shook attributed the increase, the first since 1974, to increased power costs and operating expenses.

"Since 1974, power costs, the cost of importing water and pump taxes

Teachers Report Before Students

As of this date, September 1, a meager 12 days of vacation from school remain for approximately 2,400 Yorba Linda School District boys and girls. School opens on Monday, September 13.

New student registration began last Monday and will continue to the opening of the school year.

District employees have been busy the past few weeks readying the five schools for the surge of students. Starting on Tuesday, September 7 the more than 80 teachers, with their principals, will begin getting ready for the eventful opening day.

An intensive three day series of in-service training meetings designed to prepare all staff members for the task ahead will be interrupted by Admission Day holiday on September 9.

On Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday teachers will report to assigned schools at 8 a.m. The first day all K-6 teachers will go to IMC for orientation on new state adopted math texts.

Wednesday, following morning sessions at the schools, the district meeting will be held at 1 p.m. at Stearn's Lease in Brea Canyon. Friday will be spent at the schools.

The school year will be broken with the usual 10 day winter recess the week before Easter spring recess early in April.

Other holidays include Veteran's Day, October 25; two day Thanksgiving break, Lincoln Day, February 11; Washington Day, February 21; Memorial Day, May 30 and three parent conference days in

YL Jr. High

The Yorba Linda Junior High School prepares to open its doors to approximately 630 students. The staff extends a special welcome to an estimated 310 incoming seventh graders.

Students new to the Yorba Linda area and living within the Yorba Linda School District attendance boundaries may register daily between the hours of 9 a.m. and 4 p.m.

Homeroom lists will be posted on the windows of the Learning Center which is located in the Administrative building. Eighth grade students should report to the school on Wednesday, September 8 after 9:30 a.m. Seventh grade students may find their assignments posted on Friday, September 10, 1976 after 9:30 a.m.

The Hot Lunch Program that began last Spring will continue this year.

Mock to Tackle Hill on Cycle

Craig Mock of Yorba Linda will do anything but relax over the upcoming three day holiday. In fact, he'll be laboring on Labor Day and the two preceding days to propel his motorcycle over the crest of a 300 foot hill.

Young Mock is a member of the JMI (James Mock, Inc.) Hill Climbing team that will be in the area around Pittsburgh, Pa. taking part in the Grand National Hill Climb.

Mock and the other riders, all who have qualified by topping tough hills, will race the clock in their dash to the top of the hill. The JMI team qualified by tackling "The Widow Maker" hill in Utah. Out of all riders only one conquered the 1,500 foot hill.

The local team took 50 percent of the trophies in Utah. They have prepared for the Labor Day event by local climbs twice a month.

Little Bits

A reader has requested that the Star forward to the City Council information from San Clemente to the effect that the loud siren to alert reserve firemen is being replaced by pocket paging devices. The average cost of the paging device is $317. Their range is said to be greater than the siren and firemen can listen to the dispatch frequency. The siren in San Clemente will be kept in working condition for use in a civil defense emergency and will be tested once a month.

Another $43,248 has been received by the city from distribution of various state collected taxes. Yorba Linda got $24,983 from highway users taxes, $10,670 from "in lieu" motor vehicle fees and $7,595 from cigarette taxes.

There will be a special meeting of the Beautification Committee tonight (Wednesday) at 7 p.m. in the city building at 4701 Casa Loma. Policies, by-laws and correspondence will be considered.

The Fullerton Union High School District Board of Trustees named the California School Employees Association (CSEA) as the exclusive representative for the classified employees. This does not include bus drivers. The action will permit the association to commence bargaining negotiations with the district for a contract. The board also allocated $100,000 to reinstate about half of the instructional aide positions previously cut from the budget.

The Board of Trustees of the Yorba Linda District Library will meet on Thursday, September 2 at 7:30 p.m. Business includes consideration of a head of children's services, a short-term borrowing resolution and completing certificates of annexations.

Deputy registrars of voters will be located at Von's Market in the Country Club Shopping Center, Yorba Linda and Fairmont, on Saturday and Sunday, September 4 and 5 from 12 noon to 5 p.m. In order to register a person must be a U.S. citizen and be 18 years of age as of the General Election on November 2.

Yorba Linda and other Orange County cities have been invited to participate in formal hearings on September 9 regarding paramedics in Orange County. The hearing will take place at the meeting of the county division of the League of California Cities. It will be held at the Holiday Inn in Fullerton. Each city will be given an opportunity to state a position regarding paramedics.

BIG ADVENTURE - Judy Bateman tries to decide whether or not she will enjoy a ride on the merry-go-round at the Yorba Linda Rotary Club Carnival. The sensation of up and down movement combined with the circular path was new to Judy.

MOTORCYCLE RIDER Craig Mock of Yorba Linda will compete over the Labor Day weekend in the Hill Climbing Grand Nationals in Pennsylvania. He is ready now to take three cracks at the hill in hopes of winning a trophy.

Rec Volunteers Wrap Up Events

The Yorba Linda Recreation Department's summer program came to a close recently, marked by a pool party and a luncheon, both given in honor of Yorba Linda's Volunteers.

For those unfamiliar with the Volunteer program, it is made up of the teenage citizens of our community who spend their summer volunteering their talents in many areas.

The Volunteers receive no pay for their service, with their satisfaction coming from the knowledge that they help the department in its effort to offer a variety of classes and events to the public.

August 6 found the volunteers enjoying themselves at a pool party, which was made all the nicer by various merchants who donated door prizes for the event. Contributing merchants included:

Arrow Hardware, B and B Pharmacy, The Book Shelf, Crown Stationers, Frisco's Delicatessen, H. Salt Esq. Fish and Chips, McDonalds, Oasis Imports, The Plant Lady, The Sports Buff, Sterling Liquors, and Village Hardware.

The final function, the Volunteer luncheon, was held at the Yorba Linda District Library multi-purpose room on August 13. Yorba Linda's mayor Henry Wedaa, members of the press, and the remainder of the Recreation staff joined the Volunteers for their final tribute.

The luncheon was planned and co-ordinated by Mrs. Ted Lawson, with the assistance of Mrs. Howard Belz, Mrs. Arthur Hawkes, and Mrs. Gordon Nicholson.

Recreation Supervisor Ken Sparks, along with Mayor Wedaa, awarded merit certificates to recreation personnel with special awards going to Volunteers presented on behalf of the city and by Diane Swenson of the Soroptimist Club.

The Recreation Department wishes to thank those merchants who contributed door prizes to the pool party, and also extends an expression of thanks to Mmes. Lawson, Belz, Hawkes, and Nicholson for their time and effort, making the luncheon possible.

The Department is also grateful to the Soroptimist Club for its award contribution, and to the Yorba Linda Star for its coverage of events throughout the summer and during the year.

SCAG Workshops on Water Quality

Two special workshops aimed at involving citizens and community groups in a new regional program to improve water quality will be held in Los Angeles and Orange counties in September.

Sponsored by the Southern California Association of Governments (SCAG), the workshops will be held Wednesday, September 8 at 7 p.m. at the Huntington-Sheraton Hotel in Pasadena and on Friday, September 10 at 9:30 a.m. at the Anaheim-Sheraton Hotel.

SCAG was recently designated as the water quality planning agency for the South Coast Area and has begun a two-year program to develop a water management plan.

"The planning process requires continuous participation of citizens, elected officials and technicians," said Yorba Linda Mayor Henry Wedaa, who chairs the SCAG 208 Program Committee and is a member of SCAG's Executive Committee.

"We must work together to determine which solutions are not only cost effective and environmentally effective, but also socially, politically and economically acceptable," he added.

The SCAG 208 Water Quality Program, named after Section 208 of the Federal Water Pollution Control Act, will concentrate on nonpoint source pollution.

One source of nonpoint pollution which SCAG will explore is urban and agricultural stormwater runoff. Rubber and oil from streets, and pesticides and fertilizers from agricultural lands may be carried by stormwater into groundwater supplies, which are later pumped up for consumption.

"Water quality is a growing concern here in Southern California, but now the citizens have an opportunity to help decide what preventative measures should be taken for the future," Wedaa said.

FUHSD Cuts Tax Rates

At a special meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Fullerton Union High School District, $422,614 was cut from the already adopted budget for 1976-77. The action was taken after reviewing the extent of potential revenues to the district as a result of school financing laws SB 90 and SB 1941.

Because of the latter legislation, the district would have realized an estimated $500,727 for the fiscal year. Of this, slightly more than $78,000, which would be funded by the State, will still be allocated to the district.

The remainder, $422,614, or the amount cut from the budget, would have been raised through the levy of a local tax.

However, by opting not to take advantage of the school financing formula and levying the tax, the board has cut the tax rate for local property owners by a little over five cents.

This reduction, along with the cut already made when the final budget was adopted, totals a savings of 14 cents per $100 of assessed valuation over last year.

This action also means, however, a sizeable reduction in the general reserve fund, out of which any reinstatement of cut programs or wage adjustments will be made. This will necessitate an establishment of priorities be made as to the potential allocation of these reserve funds.

Equine Law

Old, new and prospective members are invited to the Yorba Linda Country Riders meeting tonight, (Wednesday) in the multi-purpose room of the Yorba Linda library at 7 p.m.

Guest speaker will be Phil Paxton, planning director. He will discuss city equine laws and the Yorba Linda trail system.

The Country Riders, a corral of Equestrian Trails, Inc., who have a full year of activities planned, recently went on an overnight ride to Hart Bar in Big Bear.

You may receive a calendar of events at the next meeting. Those wishing membership information may call membership chairman Vickie O'Leary at 993-4542.

The absence of two planning commissioners resulted in the postponement of a public hearing last week on plans for development of the Dominguez Ranch.

Commissioners Carolyn Ewing and William Kittredge were unable to attend the session and requested continuance. The matter is now set for hearing on Wednesday, September 15.

C. Michael Corporation, developers, have requested a permanent Planned Community Zone to replace the existing PC Urgency Zone.

The commission approved a conditional use permit for Esperanza Community Hospital to permit a mobile unit to continue in operation as a medical office facility for 18 months after which a year will be allowed to make application for a permanent building. The hospital is on Bastanchury Road.

The hospital was also given approval to create two parcels out of one existing parcel of 2.77 acres on the southwest corner of Bastanchury and Prospect.

School...

November, February and April. School closes on June 16.

The 175 teaching days over 37 weeks will be divided into four quarters. They are: September 13-November 12, November 15-February 4, February 7-April 15, and April 18-June 16.

Principal Charles Hammond at Richard Nixon School will have a staff of 11 teachers. The school is located at 18011 Yorba Linda Blvd., corner of Eureka.

Mabel Paine School, 4444 Plumosa, has Albert Steffan as principal and 19 teachers. Mrs. Janet Julian is principal at Rose Drive School, 4700 Rose Drive. This school has 16 teachers.

The fourth elementary school, going into its second year, is Linda Vista. Principal Donald Anderson heads a staff of 14 teachers at the 5600 S. Ohio address.

The district's only intermediate school is Yorba Linda Junior High at 4777 Casa Loma. The 23 teachers are headed by Principal John Best.

BIG WINNERS—Diane Swenson, representing the Soroptimist Club, presents Linda Ruiz with one of the organization's scholarships and Mayor Henry Wedaa does the same for Susan Lawson as the youth volunteers for the Yorba Linda Recreation Department's Summer Program were feted at the annual end of season luncheon and awards. Soroptimists annually honor the two outstanding volunteers.

Ford and Dole...Carter and Mondale. Both sides have chosen their representatives for the winners take all battle on November 2.

There will be a brief hiatus from now until Labor Day and then the campaigning will get underway in earnest. The election should climax our bicentennial year in grand style.

The California Secretary of State, March Eu Fong, has conveniently supplied us with registration figures as of May. These give us an idea of the strength of the Democrats and Republicans at that point. The figures will change as registrations continue.

The degree of change will be determined by the acceptance of the voters of the candidates. Republicans in California who favored Ronald Reagan may want to record their protest of the Ford nomination by not registering. Democrats may hold off, holding that four years from now Jerry Brown will be their party's candidate.

Of the four principals the country at large knows little about three of them, only having had an opportunity to judge President Ford on what he has accomplished since succeeding to the office.

As of May the state had 8,710,756 registered voters. Slightly less than five million or 57.3 percent are Democrats. The GOP has a registration of 3.1 million or 36.6.

There are a few registered for a couple of minority parties and almost a half million "declined to states".

Of the state totals Yorba Linda contributes 5,896 Republicans and 4,004 Democrats among the 10,602 registrants. The percentages are 55.6 and 37.7, respectively. The American Independent Party has 42 voters here. Peace and Freedom Party 9, miscellaneous 4 and declined to state, 647.

Somewhat of a surprise is a slight edge for the Democrats in the Third Supervisorial District. There are 69,133 Dems to 68,348 Republicans. However, this is a non-partisan office and Supervisor Ralph Diedrich is unopposed for reelection.

The Republicans have a 12 point percent edge in the 70th Assembly District. Out of a total of 133,972 voters, 70,182 (52.4%) are in the GOP column and 54,164 (40.4) are Democrats.

The Republican margin is slighter in the 35th State Senatorial District. Republicans number 125,720 and Democrats 110,616. The percentages are 49.5 to 43.6. There are almost 16,000 declined to states in that district which figures out to 6.2%.

Realtors Flock to City Seminar

It was a difficult idea to sell but once accomplished everyone involved agreed that it was a worthwhile project.

Almost 100 representatives of the local and area real estate industry turned out for last week's Real Estate Seminar sponsored by the City of Yorba Linda.

City and officials of school districts told the real estate people of their requirements and answered questions.

Mayor Henry Wedaa traced the city's drive to incorporation and the original council's dedication to maintaining a low density of population. This was reflected in the adoption of the George Machado inspired General Plan to which zoning conforms.

Speaking of commercial developments such as shopping centers, Wedaa voiced the opinion that the population will never be large enough to support a regional mall.

Mechanics of the Planning Commission were outlined by Chairman Ann Capron. She explained that the commission is an advisory agency of laymen who weigh the requests of private interests against the dictates of the public welfare.

Capron remarked on future growth, utilities, parcel maps and implementation of the General Plan. She told of the requirements for an applicant to obtain a conditional use permit. Variances were another area discussed, as was design review.

Toni Porter of the Yorba Linda School District and Pat Bowman of the Placentia Unified School District told the real estate people of their interest in population growth as it relates to school attendance.

Planning Director Phil Paxton reminded the real estate people that the city directly interfaces with the industry which he called the "first contact" many families have with the city. Because of this he stressed the necessity of "accurately reflecting the city."

Paxton touched on problems of animals, annexations, zoning ordinance enforcement and other aspects of his department.

The uniform building code and codes touching on electrical, fire, plumbing were explained by Alan Moyer of the city Building Department. He also discussed minimal standards, field inspections, grading and violations.

Maintenance of streets and trails, grading, drainage, joint projects with the county were outlined by Roy Stevenson of the Engineering Department.

Clarification of many points discussed and area not touched in the presentations were dealt with when the real estate people posed several questions.

Imperial Restriping Bids Due

Advertising for bids on the restriping of Imperial Highway within the city limits of Yorba Linda will take place in September and work is expected to begin in November.

That was the heartening message delivered to the Traffic Committee by Cal Trans representative Dick Rosenthal last week.

The main east-west thoroughfare through the city will be restriped from Rose Drive to Yorba Linda Blvd. This will establish medians and left turn pockets at intersections.

Rosenthal revealed the possibility of eliminating some of the crosswalks at intersections during the restriping project. He said some of them are not warranted and others do not line up properly.

While being encouraged by the news of the long awaited projected taking place committee members expressed concerns over angle vehicular crossings of Imperial, especially at Lemon.

Staff was directed to make a study of limiting turns off Lemon to the right only or cul-de-sac-ing Lemon.

KATIE'S COLUMN

by Kay Starr

Our country as seen backwards is what I should write about. "Leadfoot" prefers driving. "Little One" prefers navigating, so I'm holding down the backseat of the wagon.

With an average of 400 miles per day, we are right on the schedule we set up. Arizona and the Grand Canyon first. The North Rim is spectacular on a beautiful, clear, sunny day.

Although I was terrified to get close to the edge, my two offspring bounded out on ledges and precipices with the abandon of youth. Most of the trail I spent clicking the shutter.

As we moved across Arizona in hot, dry, dusty weather, the formations left by erosion and upheaval, the colors of pink and brown and red, kept my eyes so busy trying to take it all in that it was a relief to cross into Colorado with some soothing greenery to view.

We all got excited about "Four Corners". Standing in Utah, then Arizona, then Colorado and then New Mexico, calling to each other, tickled our funny bones.

At the time it was blowing dust and raining, very strange, and then a magnificent full rainbow, topped off with a second rainbow. My head must have swelled two inches trying to absorb all of this show.

Colorado is a tree grower's paradise, at least on the route we followed through Durango. All those lovely trees, green meadows and little streams (with water in them).

Although I like Westerns, Louis D'Armour novels have escaped me. A big sign near Durango in his honor for writing of the area in his books means a trip to the library when I get home to check out some of his stories.

At a "point of interest" outside of Durango we viewed a charming sight, Treasure Falls. The moisture dripping off the leaves, the sound of rushing water and the clarity of the air; I almost stayed right there.

The area reminded me of Oregon and along the Columbia River and the falls. Crossing streams were a treat, especially Los Pinos River.

The cost of food and gas was high in both Arizona and Colorado. We paid up to a dollar for a half gallon of milk and lettuce was 45 cents a pound (we paid 76 cents for a head). Fruit, like peaches, nectarines and plums averaged 79 cents a pound. Gas at the name brand stations was about 70 to 75 cents a gallon.

Kansas is so different from either Arizona and Colorado, a rolling countryside with crops and cattle grazing. The weather is steamy. We just missed a storm outside of Wichita.

Dodge City and Boot Hill were very busy with tourists, not gunslingers

Stricklin Recital

On Saturday, September 16 at 8 p.m. at the Yorba Linda First Baptist Church there will be a recital by Eileen Stricklin. The 16 year old Esperanza High School senior has been taking private voice lessons for eight years.

At age 13 she went to Europe with the Ambassadors Chorale. This will be her first solo performance. Her teacher, Clark Malbory, will accompany her on the piano.

The first half of the program will include numbers in Italian, German and Shubert compositions will open the second half of the recital followed by Saint-Saens and Charles Ives numbers.

Switching to a lighter mood for the climax Eileen will offer a medley of Rolf and Judy Peterson along with sons, Matt, Eric and Neil spent vacation days at Lake Tahoe boating and fishing. Adding excitement to their life was taking a raft down the Truckee River. While going down the river with the two older boys, Rolf aided another raft that was having troubles and in doing so his raft overturned and it was exciting getting it back in the swim of things. No one was injured. Judy and Rolf were able to attend some of the shows at Tahoe and enjoyed seeing Eddie Arnold and his gang. All agreed it was a pleasant vacation.

Ann Eaves and children, Chris, David and Erin traveled to Oregon for a week to visit with Ann's sister. It only rained 6 out of the 7 days they were there.

We had a house guest this last week, Kim Hall from Big Bear Lake City. Kim is a Varsity Cheerleader at Big Bear High School. She visited Knott's, Disneyland, and other attractions in the area.

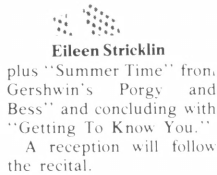

There will be an Outdoor Art Fair at Brookside Winery, 711 S. Brookhurst, Anaheim. This fair, sponsored by the Anaheim Art Council, will run September 4, 5, 18, 19 from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. Public is welcome.

Denise and Mark Snyder celebrated their 4th wedding anniversary on August 19.

Virginia Harmon (she and husband Dick own Falcon Enterprises in Placentia) is recovering from recent surgery. Cards of good cheer would be appreciated. She is at St. Jude Hospital in Fullerton.

The Ken Little Family (Ken is the manager of the Pantry Market in Placentia) recently returned from an outstanding vacation in Iowa. They enjoyed the small town atmosphere while attending a Country Fair, the Horse Races and get together that their hosts had for them. Ken said part of his vacation was also spent laying sprinkler pipe. That wasn't too much fun.

SHERYL REYNOLDS
Airman Sheryl L. Reynolds, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Gary P. Reynolds of 5222 Wendover Road, Yorba Linda, has been selected for technical training at Chanute AFB, Ill., in the Air Force metalworking field.

The airman recently completed basic training at Lackland AFB, Tex., and studied the Air Force mission, organization and customs and received special instruction in human relations.

Airman Reynolds is a 1975 graduate of Esperanza High School and attended Fullerton College.

JAA Football has Anniversary

The Placentia-Yorba Linda Junior All American Football League will celebrate its tenth anniversary in the Bicentennial year, the group pointed out this week.

The organization was originally formed in 1966 by Bob Boydston, Ron Fredregull, Dwight Long and Bill Fairbanks to bring Pop Warner Football to Brea, Placentia and Yorba Linda. In that year two teams were fielded, Pee Wee Stingrays (now Marlins) and midget Stingrays (present Sting-rays). Within two years the chapter joined with most Orange County chapters the Junior All American Football program, of which it has been a member to date.

All the teams are named after fish. The original teams were named Stingrays (at two levels) and the second name used was Sharks. The organization now has clinic Eels, Grunions and Guppies. Junior Pee Wees are Marlins and Dolphins; Midgets are Stingrays. This year a Junior Clinic team of 7 and 8 year olds was added, the Minnows.

Orange County Junior All American Football is independent from all national and regional youth football programs. Part of the philosophy can be found in the idea that some of the better youth football in the nation is played here, the group states.

The object of the program, the league points out, is to inspire youth regardless of race, color, creed or natural origin; to practice the ideas of health, citizenship and character; to bring our youth closer together through the means of a common interest and sportsmanship, fair play and fellowship; and to impart to the game elements of safety, sanity and intelligent supervision.

The current participants in Placentia-Yorba Linda JAA are extremely proud of the accomplishments of those who have led us to where we are now, the organization stated this week. Our program could not have succeeded without the dedication of board members, coaches and concerned parents.

The public's interest and participation is solicited in helping to provide even better youth programs

STRONG RIGHT ARM of quarterback Jim Teahan, #20, and offensive and defensive skills of linebacker Dave Lobaugh, #53, and two way tackle Jim Hampton, #83, are being honed for the Esperanza Aztecs in daily practice. The Boosters Club announced that the team's Annual Cardinal & Gold Game will be played at Bradford Stadium on September 7. The Jayvees will play at 7 p.m. and the Varsity at 8 p.m.

Airman Daniels

Airman Keith R. Daniels, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ned A. Daniels of 5832 Ohio St., Yorba Linda, has been assigned to Sheppard AFB, Tex., after completing Air Force basic training.

During the six weeks training at Lackland AFB, Tex., the airman studied the Air Force mission, organization and customs and received special instruction in human relations.

Airman Daniels will now receive special training in the aircraft maintenance field.

MAKE EVERY KILOWATT COUNT.

Edison has over 80 conservation tips. Here are a few.

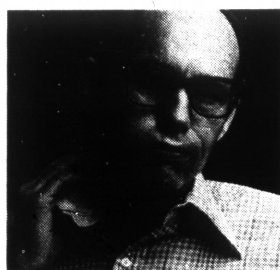

REDUCE YOUR COST OF COOLING.

Here are 6 ways to do it.

1. Keep temperature at 78° or higher.
The less difference there is between inside and outside temperatures, the lower the air conditioning cost. If you have a room air conditioner, use a thermometer to see that the room temperature drops no lower than 78°. Remember: air conditioning is not to make you cold—just comfortable.

2. Insulate your attic. If your attic isn't properly insulated, you could be using too much energy for air conditioning. (Too much energy to heat your home, too.) For information, see your local insulation contractor.

3. Air condition only rooms in use. If you have a room unit, keep all doors closed to the room you're cooling. When the children (or family pet) go outside, don't forget to close the door. Keep the windows closed, too. And draw your draperies and blinds. Outside awnings or other sun screens will also reduce your cooling needs.

4. Consider an automatic timer. Timer attachments are available that will turn off your room air conditioner when you are away from home and turn it on before you return.

5. Keep equipment clean. Clean accessible parts, but be careful not to damage them. Check filters every month and clean or replace as needed.

6. Investigate an energy-saving unit. If you're in the market for a room air conditioner, compare the Energy Efficiency Ratio rating. The higher the efficiency, the more cooling you get from the electricity you use.
